

Persons entitled to free entry

- Children and young people up to 25 years of age from Member States of the European Union, displaying their identity card or passport to confirm their age and country of origin.
- Children up to 5 years of age from countries outside the European Union, showing their passport to confirm their age and country of origin.
- Persons above 25 years old in secondary schools (evening schools, Second Chance Schools, EPAL) and vocational schools (EPAS OAED) of European Union and European Economic Area Member States, by demonstrating a certificate of attendance in which the duration of validity will be included.
- Accompanying teachers during educational visits of schools and institutions of the first, second and third levels from Member States of the European Union and European Economic Area.
- Persons with disabilities and one of their companions (the latter provided that the said persons have a disability of more than 80%), regardless of country of origin, by displaying their police ID or passport and an EFK Disability Certificate. (Resolution of the Disability Certification Center - KEPA) for residents of the country or similar certificate from a relevant competent foreign body.
- Card holders of the International Council of Museums (ICOM) and of the International Council of Monuments and Sites (ICOMOS), displaying their ID or passport and the ICOM / ICOMOS membership card in force.
- Specialist scientists licensed for the purpose of photographing, studying, drawing or publishing antiquities by demonstrating the relevant authorization.
- Journalists, with the demonstration of journalistic identity, in force.
- Holders of a Free Entry Card, by displaying it.