

Persons entitled to reduced admission from 1 April to 31 October:

- Children and young people aged 6 to 25 from countries outside the European Union, showing their passport to confirm their age and country of origin.
- Greek citizens and citizens of the other Member States of the European Union and of the European Economic Area over 65 years of age, displaying their police identity or passport to confirm their age and country of origin.
- Accompanying parents to educational visits of first level schools from Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area.
- Accompanying teachers on educational visits of schools and institutions of the first, second and third grades from countries outside the European Union.

Persons entitled to reduced entry from 1 November to 31 March:

All visitors